COX EXPECTED TO DECLARE OFFICIALLY HIS CANDIDACY FOR PRESIDENT

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 26.—Governor James M. Cox is expected to officially declare his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for president late today by filing a nominating petition with the secretary of state. His petition now is being signed up by prominent Democrats preparatory to filing.

Former Governor James M. Campbell also will file as a candidate in order to give candidates for delegate a chance to express their second choice.

That Major Leonard Wood, who yesterday officially entered the contest in Ohio with Senator Harding for the republican presidential nomination, intends to make a fight for Ohio's entire delegation of 46 to the Chicago convention, was formally announced today by William C. Proctor, of Cincinnati, General Wood's general campaign manager. He issued a statement saying much encouragement for General Wood had been found throughout the entire state.

Back From Hawaii

Mrs. D. E. Martin, 610 Court street, returned yesterday after a two month trip to the Hawaiian Islands, where she has been visiting her son, Charles N. Parley, who is a detective in the employ of the White Star Line Steamship Company.

Mrs. Martin made a tour of the islands, but spent most of her time in the capital city, Honolulu. She has many wonderful experiences to relate as a result of her trip, and speaks lamely of the delightful climate and beautiful scenery of the islands.

TYPICAL OUTFIT FOR NEW SEASON

Here is the typical outfit outfit for the coming spring season. The skirt is brown and white checked wool material, made on straight lines with a wide belt. The coat is brown velvet, lined throughout with brown velvet. It is made on a long line so that it may serve as a top coat for wear over a suit or sports outfit. Brown velvet and brown velvet are the accepted fashions for spring.

Presiding At Murder Trial

Judge James S. Thomas, of this city, is presiding over an interesting first degree murder trial in the Cuyahoga County Common Pleas court this week. The defendant in the case is Frank Malino, an Italian, charged with having murdered Jacob Malino while committing robbery on March 13, 1919. Malino was found guilty of first degree murder by a jury last week, but recommended mercy.

You don't hesitate to buy two postage stamps so you and your wife can both write letters; or two newspapers so you can both read. Two copies of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN cost even less. The Governor of one of our states bought three subscriptions for his farm and two more for his office in the state capital the other day.

Vulcan Last Company To Expand

Will Close Deal For Additional Floor Space

Portsmouth within a few weeks will be the home of the largest wood heel manufacturing plant in the world, according to an announcement made today by the Vulcan Last Company, the rapidly growing firm located in the West End of the Peorias City.

The Vulcan Last Company has bought the large brick structure at the northwest corner of Third and Jefferson streets, and has an option on the foundry building just across the street, on the northeast corner of Third and Jefferson, both buildings being known formerly as the Moore Foundry and Machine Works.

Present plans call for the company to manufacture four times as many wood heels per year as they do now. The plant has had a capacity of 250,000 to 300,000 pair of shoe heels daily.

The new buildings acquired by the Last Company measure 225 feet by 110 feet and extend from Third street to Fourth street. The building and lot together measure 225 feet by 100 feet, and also runs from Third street to Fourth street. With the deal closed for the building and lot optioned, the Last Company will have nearly two acres of floor space. The machine shop buildings were bought from C. E. Solley.

Buildings that are not suitable will be torn down and replaced with modern structures built to meet the needs of the company. A boiler has already arrived and work on the power plant will be under way by March 15. Large dry kilns will be installed and all the latest machinery invented and introduced by the last company for turning out their special kind of work, is now being put in place. The machinery ordered has been carefully selected to meet all requirements of the wood heel business. The location at Third and Jefferson streets, and the large brick structure already on the ground, form one of the finest manufacturing sites in the city. A railroad spur is already laid to both buildings, which will enable the company to receive and make railroad shipments, a large factor in giving them plenty of room for their business, something that has been lacking at the present location.

Your calluses and corns are only hanging on for a little while. They are doomed the moment you make up your mind to let "Gets-It" get them. Off they come—cleanly, smoothly and painlessly—as soon as "Gets-It" gets in its work on them.

A few drops on a corn or a callus, and your part is done. You can forget the corn or callus then (because there will be no more twinges) until it gets so loosened that you pick it off with your fingers. It's just that easy. It's a shame to suffer pain and inconvenience when its source is so readily and easily removed. You've put up with that corn or callus long enough now. There's a limit. Show it who is boss by getting "Gets-It" after it. Never fails—can't fail.

Uniform Tires Mean Long-Distance Millers

They Look Alike and Wear Alike

MILLER TIRES are built by men who are trained to a championship standard. Only by uniform workmanship, can tires ever be uniform in mileage like the Miller. To train men to our perfection takes much time. We cannot supply all dealers with Miller Tires.

So our policy is to concentrate, as a rule, on the dealer in each locality who will give Miller Tire users exceptional attention. That governed our choice in this city.

We chose a concern that knows that to give real service it must first of all carry a full stock of sizes, so that when you want a Miller Tire in a hurry, you can get it without waiting.

We are impressed especially with their ability to give motorists an expert repair service, and by their reasonable charges.

Before making this selection we canvassed the local field thoroughly. And the Miller agents here are making good with us by making good with you. Are you getting the benefit of what they have to offer?

CLOTHING MAKERS SAY
THERE'LL BE NO CUT
IN PRICE TO PUBLIC

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Increased production, more efficient distribution and stabilization of prices are necessary to reduce the price of clothing, dealers in men's wear today informed Howard Figg, who is in charge of the department of justice campaign to reduce the cost of living.
Representatives of the clothing trade concluding a two-day conference adopted resolutions pledging cooperation of the manufacturers, merchants, producers and employers in the clothing industry to the department of justice, which was called upon to investigate charges of profiteering, and if substantiated to institute prosecutions.
Will Assist Figg
A committee composed of one member from each organization was appointed to assist Mr. Figg in carrying out the recommendations of the conference.
Organizations represented were the National Retail Clothiers' Association, National Retail Drygoods Association, National Association of Clothiers, Amalgamated Clothing Workers' Association of New York, American Association of Woolen and Worsted Manufacturers, National Association of Wool Manufacturers, American Cotton Association, Mississippi Valley Association, Cotton States Official Advisory Marketing Board, and the Association of Presidents of State Farmers' Unions.
No Cut in Prices
In a statement tonight outlining the result of the conference, Mr. Figg said that causes for the present high prices, ways and means of correcting them, standardization of clothing and other pertinent matters entered into the discussion, which the department feels developed facts which will be of material assistance.
After the conference the National Association of Clothiers issued a statement in which it warned that the public should not expect any material reduction in the price of clothing because of increased wages being paid by the industry.

WE SAY--

There will be a cut in prices if you discontinue buying their clothes for the time being. Meanwhile note our campaign to prevent clothing prices going higher. For Spring and Summer, 1920, our prices will remain the same--

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets--the substitute for calomel--are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take the hold of the trouble and quickly remove it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "biliousness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c.

Jackson News

JACKSON, Feb. 25.—There has been a sensational development in the contest for a seat in the Court of Appeals. Judge Frank Deloy of this county is a candidate, and on Feb. 17, his wife was taken ill and he accompanied her to Columbus, where it was found that an operation was imperative. He is still at Columbus. In the meantime letters came to this county from Judge Festus Walters beginning as follows:

"I enclose clipping which speaks for itself. Judge Deloy has declined to be a candidate since I have entered and I write to you, etc." These letters are dated Feb. 18.

The friends of Judge Deloy communicated with him by telephone at once, and he announced that he has not withdrawn and has no intention to withdraw. The incident has caused no end of comment, and the oldest politician can not recall any similar case.

Duncan Watched

Pat Duncan of the Cincinnati Reds, has been kindly remembered by his brethren of the Jackson Lodge No. 406, B. P. O. E. and friends, who have presented to him a gold watch and chain, a knife and an Elk tooth with a diamond setting. He leaves Jackson March 4 to join his club which journeys southward to the practice grounds in Florida.

Signs With Senators

A second Jackson county man has earned a reputation on the diamond. Sheldon Chick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chick, living near Brown school house. He saw service in the Navy and made a record, and now comes the announcement that he has been signed with the Senators for a try-out the coming season. He is a husky lad, stands over six feet, weighs one hundred pounds and is a right hand hurler.

Influenza Spreading

Seven more deaths from influenza have occurred in this county, bringing the total to fourteen at this writing. The total number ill has passed the one thousand mark.

Among the deaths are those of Mrs. Frank Pritchett, wife of the D. T. & I. roadmaster, which occurred Feb. 24, Marshall Jones, the most prosperous negro in the county, whose son Raymond died last week. George Longberger of Coal township, aged sixty-five, who was living alone and who was found dead. Mrs. Charles Israel living near Berlin. Mrs. William Reed living near Wellston.

Miss Margaret Williams of Van Wert county, who was visiting her aunt, Miss Mary J. Morris in Jefferson township, was called home on account of the serious illness of her brother, David Williams, living near Venedicta. Miss Morris accompanied her. Williams and his sister are grandchildren of Benjamin G. Williams, deceased, of Clark Hill.

John Barnett, a former resident of Byer, died last week at Springfield, and his remains were brought to the old home for interment.

LIQUOR THEFTS INCREASE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Thfts of liquor from bonded and distillery warehouses have increased at an alarming rate since the country went dry, the house ways and means committee was told today by representatives of the federal prohibition enforcement bureau. They appeared in support of a bill providing for special warehouse for the storing under federal guard of the nation's sizable supply of 50,000,000 gallons, so as to prevent its transfer to rumblers of outlaw trade.

Alfred D. Van Duren, counsel for the federal prohibition commissioner, said definite reports showed that 10,000 gallons had been stolen from 88 warehouses since July 1. On every gallon stolen the government requires the distiller to pay a tax of $0.40, he said, on the assumption that it was taken out for beverage use.

Dear Miss Wise—Please tell me how to make ice cream in a fireless cooker. I made it by a receipt for making it in a freezer and it froze alright but tasted doughy or something. I saw the receipt I want one time but have forgotten where I saw it. —ICE LOVER.

I don't believe you can freeze cream satisfactorily in a fireless cooker. Any frozen dessert which does not require to be stirred—mousse or parfait, for instance—can be made in them. Set one pan inside of the other, filling the outer one with chopped feed and salt and the inner one with the prepared mixture. Let stand for about 5 hours.

Dear Dolly—Some one was talking about me last Saturday in a local department store and am very anxious for them to call me up as soon as they can. They should know who this is when they see this signature.
P. MIDDYBLOUSE.

Miss Wise—Will you please tell me how I can clean a pair of grey suede shoes.

You can buy a cleaner at the shoe store.
Dear Miss Wise—Please tell me how to remove the perspiration odor from the armpits of a serge dress.
A READER.

Perspiration stains may be removed by a solution of citric acid and water. Use a proportion of one drop of citric acid to 20 drops of water. Sponge the stains with this when hanging dress in air. Then get a pair of shields so you won't have it to do over again.

Dear Dolly—Please publish this with the request that some one send in the right answer as I have received so much rope that I am thinking of going into the rope selling business. I send you this your heart to stir. Its you I've chosen first of all. On whom to make a leap year call. I want your heart, this is no jest. I hope you will grant my fair request. And send me back without delay. Your answer saying "Yes" or "No". But should you heart not incline in wedlock's bond to join with mine Then you must leap year's law obey And send me ten dollar pay, Besides kind sir, a handsome dress. I ask no more, I take no less. You may think this letter funny But I want either have you or money If you think I am a dandy Send me a box of candy. If for me there is no hope Send me six feet of rope. Will close, with lots of love and kisses, From one who wants to be your Mrs. HELPFUL BUT FULL OF HOPE

Dear Dolly—Would you please tell me where Pearl White and Ruth Island are and what are their addresses. I would like to write to them. I am eleven years old and am in the sixth grade, do you think my writing is good.
WANT TO KNOW.
Address Ruth Island and Pearl White in care of the Patch Exchange, 25 West Forty-Fifth Street, New York City. Your writing could be improved by practice.

Respectful Reader—It is hard to decide what to do under the circumstances. If the house you speak of is in a different neighborhood, I suppose you will have to let them have it. If you don't, she may "start" something worse than she did the first time. You've got to wear rubber gloves when you handle some people.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

(Causes Gas, Sourness and Pain—How To Treat)

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food remains in the stomach causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and many do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

CHURCH AND RED CROSS CO-OPERATION

The McDermott church faced, a year ago, the summarized results of a community survey. Its leaders were agreed that beside the usual pulpit and Sunday school ministries attention should be given to other phases of community welfare.

Tentative plans were made for a community club of residents, whether in the church membership or not. It was thought the following committees should function: Good Roads, Recreation, Village Improvement, and Industrial and Community Health.

As the plan was brought before other interested folks it was found that no town could have a stronger good roads committee than already existed in the persons of L. Taylor and Frank Walker, the active heads of the two stone companies. These men, with others formerly associated with them, have done and are constantly doing all that is possible to improve the roads of Rush township.

A recreational program has waited the construction of a basement under the church for community purposes. This will be built this spring. With such a room and the big school yard the village could have a year-round program of activity for the younger folks unimpaired.

With the coming of warm weather a substantial prize will be offered the boy or girl who will make the most marked improvement in his or her door yard over a given period of time. This will surely be a start at village improvement.

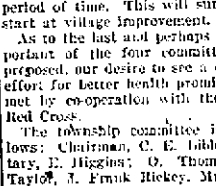

As to the last and perhaps most important of the four committees first proposed, our desire to see a concerted effort for better health promises to be met by co-operation with the County Red Cross.

The township committee is as follows: Chairman, C. E. Libby; secretary, E. Higgins; C. Thompson, J. Taylor, J. Frank Hickey, Mrs. James Barker and Mrs. A. Harger and Dr. N. Foster. There will be another member appointed for the final pick and Devers Hun. This committee made the survey for this town.

It is now possible through the Methodist church for the village of McDermott, and by aid of the county office of the Red Cross at Portsmouth, for the entire township including the village, to offer any aid needed because of illness or other reason. Residents should note that in case

SAYS PILE REMEDY WORTH $100.00 A BOX

AMERICANS DEPEND ON THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Office of friends in time of need. County and Town Red Cross organizations simply means that such neighborly kindness is now being organized and systematized.

The Red Cross annual enrollment for 1920 is postponed in Rush township until the flu clears up and the roads settle down. Soon after March 1, under the leadership of L. Taylor, we ought to enroll at least an average of two members for every home in the town. One dollar for adults, twenty-five cents for those under sixteen. Mr. Libby has appointed Mrs. L. Taylor treasurer for the campaign. If you had rather not wait it will help the committee if you will hand your membership fee now to Mrs. Taylor or one of the town committee.

MR. AND MRS. S. J. SLATTERY CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On a bright winter day, February 25, 1870, Miss Mary Jane Dixon and S. J. Slattery were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Dixon, at Dixon's Mills, in the picturesque surroundings known to many local persons. Today, to honor that event fifty years ago, the old friends and those of younger generations, called to offer their congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Slattery in their home on Highland avenue, both the honor guests are in excellent health and enjoyed the day to the utmost surrounded by their children, grandchildren, brothers and sisters and friends. Mr. Slattery, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Slattery of Harrisonville, will celebrate his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary on the eighteenth of next June, and on the third of July, Mrs. Slattery will have reached her sixty-ninth milestone. A dinner today at noon was a happy affair, for which the children and other relatives including Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Shea of Wheelersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Larnum and son, Robert of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Slattery and son Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Slattery and family, Mr. Slattery's sisters and brothers—Miss Alice Slattery, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Slattery, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Johnson of Sedalia, Mr. Slattery's sister and brother—Mrs. Hannah Brown of Pike county, Mr. Noah Dixon of Dixon's Mills, and a niece, Miss Maud Hubbard.

Between the hours of two and five this afternoon, many friends and relatives were greeted by the host and hostess. Mrs. John Sowers of Lincoln street, who attended the wedding was among those in attendance. Gold and silver were the prevailing colors for the effective background of flowers, many of them tokens of friendship. In the dining room the daughters of the happy couple assisted in serving a yellow and white ice course to the guests.

THESE INFANTS MAY ENTER COLLEGE AT TEN YEARS OF AGE

Moses Finkelstein and his little sister, Gertrude.

If Moses Finkelstein, a seven-year-old Syracuse boy, maintains his present rate of progress, he will meet the university entrance requirements, as far as studies are concerned, at the age of ten years. He is the youngest graduate ever to be sent from a Syracuse school, if not from any grammar institution in the country. He is not the only child in the family to show such unusual mental advancement. His little sister, Gertrude, who is two years younger, is fast following in his footsteps and her school instructors predict the same brilliant achievement for her.

Precious Possession Is Lost.
It is a mistake to say that tact is talent. Talent is evidence of unrefined ability. Yet there are thousands of men in the world who have remarkable talent and yet are utterly lacking in tact. Some folks are rated in the genius class, but nobody likes them. It's not because they are separated because of their superior gifts, for we find others both talented and beloved. It's because they lack tact. The clever know what to say. They are sure to say the wrong thing. They are so intent on one thing to do that they have no regard for other people's feelings. And folks aren't going to be rebuffed more than once if they can help it. Tact is that happy use of good sense that leads folks to do right things and say right words when occasion demands. It does more to bring success than anything else in the world.

Lignum Vitae for Propellers.
While inspecting the head of a golf club or fitting a castor to the dining room table, few landmen realize they are handling wood from the West Indian palm tree, or lignum vitae tree, says Popular Mechanics magazine. Fewer realize that this same wood has been used to make propeller shaft bearings for every battleship and ocean liner on the high seas. This wood, alone of the thousands upon the earth, will survive the grinding rotation of the great shafts. The reason is found on examining a lignum vitae log. The sap cells are so full of heavy, solidified resin. Successive layers of fiber are arranged obliquely to each other, making it impossible to split the log.

Weak, Thin, Nervous People Should Take Bitro-Phosphate

What It Is And How It Increases Weight, Strength and Nervous Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people heavy, developing nerves and strength, and restoring vitality and vigor by the most varied means of brain and body, there are evidently thousands of men and women who have lost their strength and vitality.

Thinness and weakness are often due to a lack of energy. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern food. Phosphate is the element which builds up the body cells and gives them the capacity to absorb and utilize the energy which is contained in the food.

By feeding the cells directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphate, Bitro-Phosphate restores the body to its normal state and gives it the capacity to absorb and utilize the energy which is contained in the food.

Bitro-Phosphate is a general tonic and gives it a general improvement in the body. Nervousness, depression, lack of energy, with many other ailments, are cured by Bitro-Phosphate. It is a powerful tonic and gives it a general improvement in the body.

CAUTION: While Bitro-Phosphate is recommended for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to get on their feet should take extra care in avoiding all stimulants.

Bitro-Phosphate and all good druggists.

The Traveler's Palm.
All the early explorers in Madagascar spoke with enthusiasm of one tree in particular which was common and of such strange appearance that it formed quite a feature of many parts of the island. This afterward became well-known as the "Traveler's palm," though it is not a real palm at all. The leaves are spread out at the top of the trunk like a huge open fan. They are bright green shining leaves and usually 12 feet long and the fan, being held aloft on a leafless stem some 20 feet high, forms a striking object. But the use which has given the tree its name lies in the quantity of pure water which is held in the large sheath at the base of the leaf-stalk. This can be tapped from beneath and a draft of wholesome water obtained at will. It is thus a boon to travelers wherever it grows and thus earns its name.

Might Try Again.
Miss Euphemie Johnson was attempted by a confidential friend of her own sex when the railway company called her in to effect a cash settlement for the death of her husband, killed on his honeymoon. Mrs. Johnson had clouded her features with a heavy veil up to the time the corporation attorney had mentioned the sum, but when he produced the bill she threw back her badge of mourning and gazed eagerly on the hostile and flushed green and yellow in thick streaks. The lawyer withdrew after the signing of the release, and the two were left alone. "Euphemie," said the companion, "I suppose you'll be getting married again, now that you're so rich?" Euphemie panted, with a thick thumb half-way to her mouth for moisture and reflection. "If I do," she observed before resuming the counting the roll, "it'll be some passion working on the same railway."

DR. RAMSEY DELIVERS STRONG SERMON; VICTORY CONFERENCE GROWS IN INTEREST

Those who attended the meeting at the Second Presbyterian church last night heard one of the strongest messages ever delivered from a Portsmouth pulpit. Dr. Ramsey, of New York, who the night before had gone to bed sick, came forth with a sermon of remarkable spirituality and power. Hearers were convinced that God was behind all of the message. At that it stirred hearts was seen in the response at the close of the service when persons definitely accepted the import of the sermon as for themselves.

The Wretched Life and the Blessed Life.

Down on the Derby.
My cheeks grow so warm as I remember an occasion several years ago when my husband almost burned me up. I went to church one Sunday evening with an escort who wore a stunning derby hat. (Thank heaven those hats are almost relics now!) The congregation rose for the singing of the first hymn and at the close of the song there was a loud report. I had sat down upon that stunning new hat.

Had the Idea, All Right.
Teacher asked Gertrude if she knew the difference between "man" and "men." "A man is one man and men is a lot of men," was the child's reply.

Bad for the Debtor.
People of Salem are cautious about getting into debt. When a debtor is three months in arrears he can be seized by the creditor and compelled to work out his indebtedness. Should the debtor run away, his father, his wife or his children may be held in slavery until the debt is canceled.

Patriarchal Yew.
An enormous age is attested by some trees—notably yews. At Fountain's abbey, Yorkshire, the yew trees were old in 1192. California has a very ancient tree in Mariposa grove. Banab trees of Africa have been computed to be more than 5,000 years old, and a deciduous cypress at Chappapec is still older.

"I have come here for the purpose of enforcing the law. And I think this is a high handed grandstand play."

"You are a natural born grandstander, yourself," McDoughough countered.

"You have been playing to the public press and have said things which have been an outrageous affront to this community. When you declare there has been a whisky revolt here, you lie. Now that you are here, if you have any arrests to make, just start some. You have not scared or cowed

"You're a better actor than I," replied Dalgrymple.

"Yes," agreed the attorney, "and you'll find I am a bad actor. As for you, you are naturally a movie poster. As a matter of fact, Mr. McDoughough, I don't believe you have quite as much guts as when you got off the train last night. Press reports quoted you as saying in a telegram to superior officers that this community was in rebellion against the government. If you did say it, it is a lie."

And about 500 more words of similar conversation accompanied the click of the movie camera and then the two officers parted—one to return to his office followed by a huge knot of citizens; and the other back to his interrupted meal accompanied by a dozen members of his official party.

"I don't think I shall be invited to become president," the great pianist replied.

"I hope to devote the rest of my life to composing music. I am convinced an era of peace and prosperity for Poland is begun and feel my political mission is fulfilled."

"IN PRISONS MORE FREQUENT"

ST. PAUL, 2 Cor. 11:23

"Nation shall rise against nation and they shall deliver you into prison."

JESUS, Luke 21:10, 12

If a man were cast into prison as a just punishment for a crime against society, it would be very bad taste to refer to his imprisonment when announcing a public lecture by such an one. But when the higher court reverses the decision of the lower court, as was done in the case of Mr. MacMillan and his associates, then the matter is quite different.

Furthermore, it is well known that, of the eight Bible students, sent to prison because of faithfulness to their religious convictions, Mr. MacMillan was the only one of the eight who had an opportunity to go free because, it was conceded, that there was "nothing against him," but this he steadfastly refused to do, and deliberately chose to stand trial with the others, contrary to the protests of many friends and the tearful, earnest pleadings of his bright-faced little son, who tremulously wondered why his papa "didn't run away so they couldn't put him in jail."

Ere long all right thinking men and women will realize and appreciate the sterling character; the spirit of true, loyal Americanism and the lofty Christian ideals of such men as A. H. MacMillan.

He has given the best part of his life and his entire fortune to the great work of preaching the "Gospel of the Kingdom." He has never accepted one cent for his services and has never lectured when admission was charged or a collection was taken. HE HAS GIVEN ALL AND HAS ASKED FOR NOTHING.

You are cordially invited to hear him

OF EDUCATION
IN THE CABINET

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 26.—Speakers before the department of superintendence of the National Education Association today severely criticized congress for delaying the Smith-Towner bill, which would add a secretary of education to the president's cabinet and appropriate $100,000 annually for schools. Methods of bringing pressure to bear on congress to force passage of the measure were discussed.

Plans for combating Bolshevism through use of school buildings for community center meetings and through Americanization work in the schools were discussed by the Community Centers Association and the rural school education department. Sex education in home and school was considered again by the American School of Hygiene Association.

The election of officers will be held tomorrow.

HILDA STRONG TRIAL SET FOR MARCH 18;
RUMORED COMPROMISE MAY BE EFFECTED

The case of Hilda Strong, former bell, Cincinnati, was notified of the assignment of the case.

It is rather doubtful if the case ever comes to trial, the prosecutor said today, for the reason that he is of the opinion the accused will come into court and change her plea to guilty March 18. The case was set down for trial day at the instance of Prosecutor before trial day and throw herself on the mercy of the court. It is reported where she spent several months as a nurse's counsel, Attorney John V. Champ, that overtures have been made looking toward the extension of clemency to Miss Strong provided she makes confession of the money involved, a total of approximately $15,000. This arrangement is looked upon favorably in some quarters. It is said, Miss Strong was arrested Nov. 22 on her flight from New York from France. Atkins was taken to the institution this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Elza Canler.

"MOST DISEASES DUE TO BAD DIGESTION"
Warns Doctor Who Knows From 35 Years' Experience

"Indigestion and Constipation! Just think what it will do for you or what it may cause," says Dr. Geo. R. Barker, of Athens, Ohio. "Stomach, liver, lungs, kidneys, skin, and improve blood. The food first sears and rots. This brings on a fevered condition of the mucous membrane of the stomach and bowels, then dyspepsia follows, which results in constipation. The food matter dries and the food poison is absorbed and goes directly into the blood. Is it any wonder that indigestion and constipation cause many diseases than all other causes put together?"

The way to head off disease is to keep your digestive organs in a healthy condition. Thousands are doing this with my specially prepared treatment. People are rapidly finding out what a vast difference there is between a remedy especially prepared for Indigestion and Constipation, and one prepared to cure all diseases.

COURT HOUSE

Steel Firm Files Answer
The answer filed today by the defendant through Attorneys Miller & Seard in the suit of Irvin Shore against the Whitaker-Glossner company amounts to a general denial. The plaintiff sued for $10,000 damages for personal injuries he alleges he sustained on Dec. 22 last in a collision between a motor truck, owned by the defendant and the auto in which he was riding.

Ordered To Pay Costs
Floyd Bland, negro, who was out in the area during the brawl staged on the Scioto Trail on the night of Feb. 19, pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication when taken before Judge Small in Municipal court today. The court was of the opinion that Bland had been sufficiently punished by his confinement in jail and ordered him to pay the costs. Allen Adams, Offense street baker, who was also mixed up in the trouble, and was injured in some manner, has not as yet recovered sufficiently to appear in court.

Furnishers Bond; Released
Ralph Estrella, shoemaker, arrested several days ago on an indictment charging adultery, was released from custody today when his employer came to his aid and furnished bond, which was fixed at $100.

Named Administrator
Paul W. Gable, 1753 Eleventh street, has been appointed by the probate court as administrator of the estate of his mother, the late Mrs. Ella Gable, principal of the Lincoln school, who was run down and killed by an automobile last Friday night. The decedent left an estate valued at $4,200.

Appointed Executor
Minnie Malone has been named as executrix by the probate court of the estate of her late husband, George Malone, Washington township farmer, who died Jan. 6, leaving his property valued at $1,700, principally in real estate, to the widow. The executrix has filed a petition seeking authority to sell the land.

Appointed Guardian
H. C. Spangler, 1532 Seventh street, has been appointed by the probate court as guardian of Elizabeth and Katherine Welch, 17 and 15 years, respectively, children of Charles E. Welch, who died some time ago.

Shoemaker Adds Divorce
A divorce with custody of their minor son is sought by William H. McLeese, shoemaker, in an action filed in common pleas court today through Attorney T. C. Beatty against Minnie McLeese, New Boston, whom he married Oct. 28, 1909. He charges neglect and infidelity. The plaintiff complains that the wife neglected him and their home for other men.

Sent To Columbus
The authorities of Athens state hospital having refused to accept M. L. Atkins, former Pond Run farmer, who was adjudged insane in the local probate court, was today ordered by Judge Gilchrist committed to the state hospital for the criminal insane at Lima. Atkins was taken to the institution this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Elza Canler.

The Village Store

HAS BEEN tremendously handicapped, in the past three weeks, by the fact that 50 per cent of its salesforce has been off duty on account of "Flu" and other sickness.

Yet, those who escaped, and who remained on duty, have loyally handled the largest February business in the history of our store.

So if our service has not been so prompt and efficient as it should have been, you will know why.

No, it isn't an easy thing to just pick up any one and put them to work in The Village Store. A clerk here, to be worth much, must know the values, uses and the location of literally THOUSANDS of different articles scattered over a building 132 feet long, two stories high and with a fair sized basement, simply crammed to the eaves. To be a clerk in The Village Store implies an high degree of intelligence, a very considerable enthusiasm, a right willingness to work, and a loyalty to the ideas and in management—which only a sense of justice, fair play, reasonable pay and hopes of an ultimate realization of ideals could hold.

Each clerk feels a just proprietorship in The Village Store and feels under the same deep obligation to please you that the management feels. All are striving and working for the same end—to do all things a little better than present standards of service demand—thereby meriting more and more your good will, your business and your influence.

And when YOU come into our store—we hope YOU may eventually come to feel this SAME SENSE OF OWNERSHIP—for truly The Village Store is a TRIANGLE CONCERN between the management, its clerks and its customers. We, therefore, shall deem it a demonstration of your good will, if, when we are busy, that you go behind the counter, take down any dry goods or notions off our shelves, examine them at your leisure, get a cigar, wander upstairs—even if no more than in curiosity—take a sack or your basket, pick out 2 or 3 dozen of the finest, choicest eggs you can find—go select your own butter—in fact—wait upon yourself entirely, if you wish—then, just tell one of us what you got.

Many of our customers do this when we are busy—as we are so much of the time these days. We sincerely hope you will feel free to do so. We shall appreciate it.

We had no time to prepare a "regular ad" this week again and we couldn't take 'care of much more business anyway just now because we are somewhat disorganized. But we hope to be ready next week with some extra values. We may perhaps feel like celebrating a little after such a siege of the "Flu."

We just wanted to thank both you for your kind patronage and indulgence and our help for their loyal support in these trying times. Send in your orders just the same or, better yet, call in person. WATCH FOR OUR AD NEXT WEEK.

Because of the large number of members who attended Lenten services last night, the Catholic Order of Foresters were unable to carry out the program which they had planned for the evening.

It was decided at their meeting last night to hold their meetings at 6:45, instead of 7:30, during the Lenten season.

The Foresters have also decided to increase their sick benefit from $5 to $7 weekly. This increase will enable sick Foresters to better cope with Old Man H. C. L.

Waiting On Official Word

Arthur Gerlach, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Freight Agent, Thursday morning said that his office had not received anything official regarding the change from government to private ownership, which is scheduled to take effect Monday, March 1.

Freight officials are in the dark regarding what steps will be taken regarding the consolidation of freight depots, which was effected September 16th, 1918. By this consolidation, the bulk of the freight was handled at the Norfolk and Western freight house, and the Baltimore and Ohio freight house was used for storage and for handling freight when the N. & W. house was crowded.

Mr. Gerlach Thursday said that the probabilities were that the present method might be continued for a short while, at least, until matters were adjusted and the railroads got back to a normal working basis under the return of ownership.

JAMES R. GARFIELD ENTERED

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 26.—Because of following an alternative form of certificate of candidacy James R. Garfield, of Cleveland, today was entered in the presidential preference primary, thus making him a contestant against Major General Leonard Wood, whom he is supporting for nomination. It was his purpose to stand only as a second choice in order to assist the Wood delegates in making up their deliberations under the law.

Efforts will be made to have him withdraw and a new certificate filed giving to the Wood men the right to use his name as their second preference. His supporters have until Friday at midnight to make the transfer. The certificate for General Wood was filed formally with Secretary of State Harry C. Smith this afternoon. It was signed by former Attorney General E. C. Tamm, Jr., Charles E. Means and Thomas E. Clark, of Columbus; Senator Thomas W. Jones, of Middletown; and Sherman H. Eagle, of Gallipolis.

It provides for the submission of his name to the republican electors of the state.

What Constitutes Inability Of President Is Discussed

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 26.—What constitutes "inability" of a president of the United States to perform the duties of his office and how this question may be determined was discussed today from all angles by the house judiciary committee in opening hearings on four measures relating to mode of procedure.

Emphatic objection was expressed by members of the committee to certain provisions of a bill offered by Representative Madden, Republican, Illinois, which would give the cabinet power to declare the president "unduly" after being ill or absent from the country six weeks.

Mr. Madden said he was trying to suggest a short way out of the difficulty, adding that the cabinet, naturally in harmony and sympathy with a president, would not be inclined to do violence to his rights.

"Why does your bill fix March 4 as the date it is to take effect?" asked Representative Morgan, Republican, Oklahoma.

"Simply to take the present president out of the discussion," Mr. Madden replied. "I do not want President Wilson to think this legislation is aimed at him."

Representative Husted, Republican, New York, thought the plan gave "tremendously wide discretion to the cabinet," which amounted to absolute power over the president.

Those who attended the Wednesday evening service at All Saints' church were privileged to hear a really helpful and instructive address on "Communion With God." The Rev'd Maxwell Long, the special preacher, made a most favorable impression upon his hearers. The pastor has already secured his promise to preach next Lent. Special services will be held on Friday night at 7:30, when the speaker will be the Rev'd Angus E. Clephan, rector of St. John's Church, Columbus, O. Mr. Clephan is a Canadian and has, in a very short time, endeared himself to the men on the West Side of Columbus, through his ability as a wrestler and boxer. He will undoubtedly have an interesting message to deliver and you are cordially invited to come and hear it.

The confirmation class for adults and children over sixteen years of age meets in the office of the rector of All Saints' Church at 7:30 p. m. this evening.

Attendance at these classes does not necessarily mean that you will be presented for confirmation. Those who are interested will be made heartily welcome.

The rector's office is next door to the chapel on Fourth street.

THE RIGHT TO LIE

At Lyric Tonight, Tomorrow and Saturday

Dolores Cassinelli Has Emotional Role in "Right to Lie"

"The Right to Lie" starring Dolores Cassinelli at the Lyric Theatre today, tomorrow and Saturday, is a picture with a plot so full of tense situations, so crammed with interest and incident, so dramatic in its theme, so splendid in its several thrilling climaxes that throughout its entire length there is not a moment when its gripping vital intensity does not hold you spellbound.

It is the story of a woman whose husband's life was at stake. He had slain the man who attempted to defile her, so she fled. She felt she had the right to lie in such a cause.

THOUSANDS DIED OF INFLUENZA

Doctors Sound Early Warning to Prevent Recurrence of Dreaded Malady This Year.

Avoid closed rooms where there are a number of people. Sleep with your windows open, use a good garage at night before retiring and every morning when you arise. Table salt and water can be used for this purpose. Keep yourself in good physical condition.

Get a box of Blackto Tablets from your druggist. They are easy to take and contain no alcohol. One for adults and one-half of one for children taken every other night at bed time will assist nature in providing a gentle, sure acting laxative that will keep the system thoroughly cleansed and free from germs.

The influenza germs enter the body through the nose or mouth and are carried to the intestines with the mucus. A constipated condition prevents the bowels from throwing off the poisonous matter allowing the germ to enter the system. Blackto Tablets are sold by all druggists at 25c per box. —Advertisement.

Lombardi Ltd.

Bert LYTELL

See it at ~

Here is the best Picture of the Year—Bert Lytell, Supported by Alice Lake, in the Stage's most Elaborate Comedy, "Lombardi Ltd." It's at The New Eastland Theatre Tonight—Glorious Girls—Gorgeous Gowns—Gales of Giggles

As its attention for tonight the New Eastland presents what is without a doubt the best picture of its kind that has ever been produced.

Romance and the glamour of beautiful girls contribute an exotic setting to "Lombardi Ltd." in which, as Tito Lombardi, an eccentric Italian gown designer, Bert Lytell has one of the most picturesque roles of his career. In his Fifth Avenue dressmaking establishment, where society women come for their silken creations, Lombardi dreads his dreams and makes his tender love to a girl who proves false to him.

Aesthetic and generous, his business slowly goes to ruin, almost, because of his faith in men and women. How his sweet and pretty little assistant Norah, eventually comes to his rescue and awakens him to a realization of her loyalty and love is told in a fascinating comedy drama unfolded by those master craftsmen, Frederic and Fanny Halton.

WILLIAM FARNUM
DIRECTOR WILLIAM FOX

See "Wolves of the Night," a Real William Farnum Picture, Rich in Romance and Action, at the Strand Tonight Last Time. Get the Strand Habit!

William Farnum in "Wolves of the Night" will be shown at the Strand tonight last time. It is said to be the most powerfully dramatic subject in which this popular screen star has been seen. It is a real Farnum picture, which means that it is rich in the elements of romance, pathos, action and suspense. It carries the spectator into the Southwest, into the Andes mountains and into the maelstrom of Wall Street. The discovery of a rich vein of copper in a man's property is viewed as a stroke of good fortune. But to Farnum it meant the worst sort of ill-luck.

How he lost his property and his wife, how he narrowly escaped death and became insane, how he recovered his memory and returned home only to find out that his wife had married another through the belief that her husband was dead, are the events that make up the climax of this sensational tale. Other splendid attractions will be shown also.

WILL ROGERS
LAUGHING BILL HYDE
by REX BEACH
Goldwyn Release

Rex Beach's Thrilling Drama of the West, "Laughing Bill Hyde," Starring Will Rogers, is the Attraction at the Exhibit Theatre Tonight—The Most Thrilling of all Rex Beach Pictures

Two crooks were a thrilling death struggle in Rex Beach's "Laughing Bill Hyde," a Goldwyn Picture, which comes to the Exhibit tonight. Only when both roll dead over the rocks in an Alaska settlement does the gun fight end.

Black Jack Burg and Denny Sleeth, who for months have been systematically robbing their employer, a mine owner, of gold dug from his claim, are stumped to find that someone has made off with the treasure box in which they hid the loot. Immediately they accuse each other. "Where did you put it?" one asks, pulling his gun. "That's what I'm asking you!" is the other's reply, as he, too, grabs his gun. Brooding the century wonder dog, trusty six-shooter.

After a minute of silence both guns don't miss him tonight.

Edith Clayton in "A Sporting Chance" at the Temple Tonight Only

Manager Spitzer has for tonight's offering to Temple patrons, a Paramount feature success with Edith Clayton in the title role, "A Sporting Chance" is the title of this special feature photo play. The story is one that is most interesting and the play is filled with thrills and action aplenty. Special music by Temple orchestra.

THEATRICAL

The Keystone Follies, all-week miniature musical comedy attraction at the Sun Theatre, give way tonight only to the road attraction, "The Friend, The Widow," but will resume their engagement at the matinee Friday afternoon, with a complete change of program. For Friday and Saturday, the Follies, composed of ninety-nine percent young, pretty and talented girls, will present the third and last of the three capsule comic operas in their repertoire.

Two of pretty co-eds of Chicago University wearing golosses like grand father used to wear.

Those people who like to gaze upon a dainty, neatly clad silver article have been deprived of that pleasure this winter because of the new and generally popular fad for golosses. Jack Frost has also been dealt a blow since all the fair maids have taken to wearing exact duplicates of grandfather's overboots, popular some fifty years ago. The most fashionable method of wearing the ugly but practical thing is to leave the clasp open so they flap and clank with a noisy, careless air.

The Monkeys of the Masonic Junior League were given the roughest sort of treatment by Big Bill Critchton's Wonders at the Pennant alleys, last night. The leaders won three in a row, due to the fine work of Captain Critchton, who is now leading the league in point of average, punctuality and pins. He totalled 602 pins and was going strong at the finish. Seymour of the Wonders was a great help to his team, while Harry Flowers blossomed forth like an American Beauty, gathering 417. The Monkeys were handicapped by three blinds. The scores:

February 27—Hornets vs. Slickers.

Ed Leach's Wingfoots showed themselves to the top of the Play House Duck Pin League last night, by walking all over the blundered bodies of the Rinkums, who were man handled, manacled and mutilated beyond recognition for three games in a row. The way the Wingfoots went one would suppose they would not lose a single game in fifty years. They showed no mercy, asked none and went about their business like coopers around so many barrels. In only one game, the second, did the Rinkums have a chance, and they lost 3-11. The margin of six pins, a true reflection of the difference in the two teams, was the only margin of the evening. He totalled 401, or 18 pins more than his captain, who was in good humor, mood and method. Clyde Barton, the big fellow from the Solway, started in like a dice, throwing 145 pins. Then he began to throw more pins than have seen in Wilson's cabinet and could not get an hundred although he tried like blue blazes. James Kelley, the Minor Brown of the league, was right in the thick of the fighting and held up his end in his league style. He did not extend himself in the last game for he knew his team had it clinched and there was really no use for rubbing it in—a charitable heart has the contractor.

Mr. Baker, strange as it may sound, was the chief gunner for the Rinkums. He hit ten for 345 and now declares he has discovered the secret. William Know was the second best, getting 331, with Gay

John Underwood was the only man of the evening. He totalled 401, or 18 pins more than his captain, who was in good humor, mood and method. He was forced to shoot his game on the run of it, and that explains it. Watch Mr. Smith tomorrow evening. He is scheduled to give an exhibition, beginning promptly at 7 bells. WILL NAME HERMANN'S SUCCESSOR

NEW YORK, Feb. 26—Garry Hermann's successor probably will be in the chair of the National Commission before March winds have done much of their blowing.

We discussed the chairmanship, and while we did not reach a decision we came to the point where the final steps can be taken by wire," Heydler said today.

While nothing official was given out, it is understood that the appointment now rests between two candidates: Senator James Walker, New York and Harry Woodruff of Chicago. The National League is said to be backing Walker with the American League lined up for Woodruff.

WHAT FRIENDLY CRITICS AND EXPERTS SAY OF WOMAN'S DRESS

Woman's dress has come in for a good share of the present-day criticism. The clothes problem started when Eve ate the fatal apple and it has continued to thrive ever since, through the ages. Today the problem is considered a very serious one, involving as it does the matter of aesthetics, the still more serious matter of health, and even, as some say, the matter of public morals. "Teeth and morals have been the two storm centers and the theories concerning dress as affecting both of these are many and varied. There is everything from the advice of a New York doctor that "all women should wear what they like and look as pretty as they can" to the fanaticism of those who believe that all women should wear pannies and high-necked, long-sleeved uniforms.

Those people who take the clothes matter most seriously and are perhaps most vitally interested in the new and ever changing fashion are the most lenient in their criticism. They are the stage people and other artists. In almost every instance, however, the woman who is extreme and even immodest in her stage dress is often very conservative in her street costumes and personal wardrobe. Almost all of the stage celebrities known for their elaborate wardrobe assert that modern dress is not immodest, but rather unattractive. Women copy stage models to wear at the office and dance frocks for street wear, showing lack of judgment and good taste. This is the complaint of such artists as Elsie Ferguson, Virginia Pearson, Geraldine Farrar and Ethel Leginska.

STECHER TOO MUCH FOR RUSSIAN

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 26—Even now, the "Russian giant" was recovering today from the results of a combination body scissor and wrist hold, by which Joe Stecher, world's champion wrestler, threw him last night after an hour and twenty-one minutes.

Know could not be moved from the ring for twenty minutes after the bout and was virtually helpless for an hour. He had previously broken four body scissor holds.

Why Lewis Is Barred

YOUNGSTOWN, O., February 26—"Strander" Lewis, barred by the local boxing commission when he failed to appear for a scheduled match, has written the commission saying that the reason he sent a substitute was that he was suffering from a car-sickness on the back of his neck which made wrestling impossible.

The commission, which has asked other similar bodies to cooperate in barring Lewis from Ohio, refuses to receive his action, saying that Lewis sent no word until his substitute appeared late on the afternoon of the day for which the bout was scheduled.

Arrangements have been completed between the High School Athletic Association and the Selects for two games to be played in the local gym Saturday night.

The preliminary game will be between the P. H. S. girls' team and the Selectville girls' team. This game should be close and exciting, as the P. H. S. girls recently held the Selectville girls to a small score. The Selectville girls have one of the best teams in this section of the state. A large delegation from Selectville will accompany the team and cheer them on to a possible victory.

In the big and final game of the evening the first Selects team of this city will match their skill with the famous St. Mary's Braves, formerly the Dayton Cadets of Dayton.

This Catholic team is recognized as one of Ohio's best bats in the basketball world. They first attracted nationwide attention by defeating the famous Buffalo Germans, world's champions in 1915. Since then the Cadets have progressed, until now they are recognized as Dayton's premier team. They have not been defeated by an Ohio team this season. One of their notable victories this season is their victory over Wittenberg College, at present leading the Ohio college conference. They suffered their only defeat of the season at the hands of Hamilton, Ind.

The Selects are practicing hard this week in their endeavor to turn in a victory over the Dayton five.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Theatrical managers delight in threatening about the atmosphere of art, but most of them are essentially showmen, and they want to appear as the artists. A tale is told of one of these showmen who sat for a minute in the actor's room at his studio office. The actor came in, the manager looking off to space. "You sent for me?" The manager came back to the world of reality with a thump. "Yes, yes," he answered. "I was just thinking of you." The actor gave him a look that was a glorious part for any part of the world. "I have a theatrical idea for you," he said.

"Then suddenly he exploded apropos of nothing. "Let us not, for anything, confuse this thing with talk of money," says my business manager about that. It is the one magnificent thing that I do have—superb. Divine!"

The actor was so reverent to the fact that they must not let the matter of talking money spoil the grandeur of the death.

The actor puffed with the divine in status. In fact, when he shook hands and Twenty-five hundred school children at Los Angeles sang "A Dirty Old Man." The other day at some school exercises it was a patriotic ditty that had gained quite a vogue around New York. But because it was sung in public by the principal of the school, it has been deluged with threatening letters from the American Legion, the Marine Square Garden and sung it and invited all the bomb-throwers.

New Yorkers are asking America's first this year, and its snowing in New York, but it's not the start of the season. It's the start of the season for the schedule of seasonal festivities, but, given conditions like those of the last few days, every burlesque has a little winter sports mania in its home. Long Island, and even Little, has mounted on skis to skin the hard crust that caps the blizzards.

Samuel Merwin attended a dinner recently at which a well-known Broadway manager was a guest. Somehow the manager got the idea that Merwin was a high-brow writer—sort of a Faulkner. He was a product of the East Side and was awed by Merwin's presence. He didn't have a word to say and he sat at Merwin's table. He realized that the silence was becoming painful.

SHE MARRIED AN AVERAGE MAN

Jim paced home late from the works, his face clouded, his manner tired and preoccupied. As always if late, the thought of Rose Gresh flashed into my unquiet mind.

"Anything bothering you, Jimmy?" I asked, masking my anxiety under a brisk and cheerful manner.

"No," he hesitated.

"Things all right at the works?"

"I tried not to get nearer to the house than the people of Miss Green, yet I had to mention her."

"Mumma—yes; I guess things are all right. Had a heavy day. Man from out of town talked to us and said he was going to get a wife, and to take up. Got a kind of a headache and oh, yes, little Miss Green is going."

"I don't think she's going," said the man, indifferently. But she's going to turn over a new leaf. She was very unhappy about the money."

"I felt a good deal flustered over the money part," he had not thought of that. But, of course, this is right. One could not send her there without anything in reserve. My private opinion of Rose Green is that no employment, influence, friends or money could help her along. There are some people who have to let their own selfish

"Jim!" I cried, a great leap of joy and relief indicating my voice. "You're coming to see me, aren't you?"

"I'm going to New York. You've gotten her a position there?"

Jim nodded gravely, looking at me with an expression that said as plainly as words: "I saw I had to do it. I told you. I was reluctant to be the means of her going, but I had to honor you at any cost; you are unrelenting about her and you are not yourself. I must be good to you."

I rushed to him and put my arms about his neck.

"I will forgive you if you don't mean to keep it from me."

The night she made up and seemed to look for a gate or way into the garden. At last she saw where an iron bar or two of fence had been broken, making a good-sized hole, and threaded her way through roses and ivy and soon having a feast of all the Jones's prize cabbages, lettuce, beans, while the family, including down, were at church.

They were still eating when they heard the iron gates slam shut and a car horn honk. "I saw a car coming toward them, so I came in (frantic anger, shouting), but I already forgotten his school lesson; 'Let not your passions rise!'"

Sandow Is Matched

Sunday Sandow, Cincinnati's premier featherweight and Harry Coulton, have been matched for a ten round go in Cincinnati next week. Of course Sandow will be the favorite.

A Copious Fall.
Where an unrelieved drought has now been endured for two years and nine months, while in other happier spots some showers of old intervals have been just sufficient to enable farmers to keep their heads above water—Rand Daily Mail.

Notre Dame's Schedule

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 26.—Notre Dame's 1920 football schedule which has been a matter of conjecture, especially since it was announced that the scheduled game with Harvard had been cancelled at the request of Notre Dame authorities, was announced today. It developed that a decision of the faculty to allow only one eastern trip was responsible for cancellation of the game with Harvard, set for October 3.

WILL NAME HERMANN'S SUCCESSOR

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Garry Herr and while we did not reach a decision, must now rest between two candidates. Sonator James Walker, New York and Harvey Woodruff, Chicago, are the two men who are being considered for the chair of the National Commission on the part of the National League. The National League is said to have chosen Walker.

While nothing official was given to backing Walker with the American League, it is understood that the appointment will be made by the American League.

Woman's dress has come in for a good share of the present-day criticism. The clothes problem started when Eve ate the fatal apple and it has continued to thrive ever since. Today the problem is considered a very serious one, involving as it does the matter of aesthetics, the still more serious matter of health, and even, at some say, the matter of public morals. Health and morals have been the two storm centers and the theories concerning dress as affecting both of these are many and varied. There is everything from the advice of a New York doctor that "all women should wear what they like and look as pretty as they can," to the fanatic who believes that all women should wear uniforms.

Most people who take the clothes matter most seriously and are perhaps most vitally interested in the new and ever changing fashion are the most lenient in their criticism. They are the stage people and other artists. In almost every instance, however, the woman who is extreme and even immodest in her stage dress is often very conservative in her street costumes and personal wardrobe. Almost all of the stage celebrities known for their elaborate wardrobe assert that modern dress is not immodest, but rather unbecomingly so.

Women copy stage models to wear at the office and dance frocks for street wear, showing lack of judgment and good taste. This is the only sign of such artists of dress as Elsie Ferguson, Virginia Pearson, Geraldine Farrar and Ethel Leginska.
